First Strike...

Welcome

Hello everyone and welcome to the latest edition of Newsreel and a special welcome to Van Den Eynde the new sponsors of our opening Spring Festival.

We've lined up some great new features for you geared to help you make the most of your fishing holiday at White Acres.

In this issue we meet our new expert panel of anglers recruited to provide you with hints and tips to catch more fish when you visit our lakes.

There are some exciting developments taking place with 2004 marking the start of year round angling holidays, in particular May where we have some fantastic angling holiday breaks - and the park opens its doors right through to the winter months.

You'll find Clint and the rest of the staff have been hard at work preparing for this season and among the improvements are new tarmac paths designed to give unhindered wheelchair access to specially designed disabled swims on Python, Sycamore and Eery. This is only the start as the disabled friendly access is an ongoing project.

The Tackle lodge has been further improved, all the lakes restocked and another first for 2004 is a dedicated teaching lake for beginners to learn the art of fishing under professional supervision. It's gonna be good....

Keep baggin
