First Strike...

Welcome

I must open this issue by congratulating the White Acres NFA England Ladies Team on retaining the Gold medal in the World Championships at Milton Keynes in August. Warranting a special mention is Sandra Scotthorne who retained her individual gold medal too. You can read all about it on pages 18-19. White Acres and the England Ladies - what a winning combination!

It's been a busy summer season at White Acres with the new facilities introduced at the start of 2003 like the First Bite cafe, Strike cafe, Bowlingo and the new tackle lodge all proving popular not to mention the new lakes. Looking ahead we have the Parkdean Masters coming up with one of the biggest prize funds in angling which is previewed on pages 16-17.

I know the new owners Parkdean are delighted to own the country's premier angling park and they are committed to improving the facilities even further with this winter's development programme including increasing the parking on site including extra spaces behind Trelawney.

In this edition you will notice a new face as we welcome Sky TV's angling presenter Keith Arthur to the fold with the first of a regular series. We also have a great "Tried and Tested" competition and the prize is one of the best pole roosts on the market.

Enjoy your fishing,

For

Editor.
